BIOFUELS OBLIGATION SCHEME
REVISED DETERMINATION NOTICE

In accordance with Section 44G (2B) (1) of the Energy (Biofuel Obligation and Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 2010, the National Oil Reserves Agency (NORA), having considered such representations as were made to the Agency following the publication of the draft of its Proposed Revised Determination on 7th November 2022, has determined that the feedstock material referred to as Belly Grass in the application for Biofuel Obligation Certificates, which was submitted to the Agency on 14th May 2021 by Green Gas Generation, meets the description contained in Annex IX Part A (d) of the recast Renewable Energy Directive (EU 2018/2001).

(d) Biomass fraction of industrial waste not fit for use in the food or feed chain, including material from retail and wholesale and the agro-food and fish and aquaculture industry, and excluding feedstocks listed in part B of this Annex.

Accordingly, BOS Account Holders may apply, for the obligation period commencing from 1st January 2023, for two Green Certificate in respect of each megajoule of biofuel produced from this material and disposed of by sale or otherwise in the State, as reported to the Department of Environment, Climate and Communications.

In making this Revised Determination, NORA has consulted with the following persons:

- the National Standards Authority of Ireland (NSAI),
- the Sustainable Energy Authority of Ireland (SEAI),
- the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA),
- the Minister for the Environment, Climate and Communications.

If Belly Grass is added to Annex IX of the recast Renewable Energy Directive by way of amendment by the European Commission, the amended Annex IX shall supersede this revised determination and it will dictate the treatment of biofuel produced from this feedstock.

Signed: GAVIN NORRIS,
For and on behalf of the National Oil Reserves Agency.

Date: 19th December 2022.

CONSERVATION OF SALMON AND SEA TROUT (BAG LIMITS) BYE-LAW NO. 997, 2022

I, Eamon Ryan, Minister for the Environment, Climate and Communications, in exercise of the powers conferred on me by section 57 of the Inland Fisheries Act 2010 (No. 10 of 2010) (as adapted by the Communications, Climate Action and Environment (Alteration of Name of Department and Title of Minister) Order 2020 (S.I. No. 373 of 2020)), hereby make the following bye-law:

1. (1) This Bye-law may be cited as the Conservation of Salmon and Sea Trout (Bag Limits) Bye-Law No. 997 of 2022.

(2) This Bye-law comes into operation on 1 January 2023.

2. In this Bye-law:

“catch and release”, in relation to angling for salmon or sea trout in the waters to which this bye-law applies, means the careful handling of any fish caught and the immediate return of such fish alive to the water from which it was taken;

“fish” means salmon or sea trout or both;

“salmon” means fish of the species Salmo salar (Atlantic salmon);

“sea trout” means fish of the migratory form Salmo trutta, but does not include a sea trout which is 40 centimetres or less in length measured in a straight line from the tip of the snout to the fork of the tail.

3. Notwithstanding anything contained in any bye-law prohibiting the taking or having possession of more than a specified number of salmon or sea trout, a person shall not take by rod and line more than 10 fish in any year.

4. Subject to Article 6, it is prohibited for a person to take by rod and line in any year between 1 January and 11 May, more than 3 fish, and a person shall not take more than 1 fish on any day during that period, in the waters of a river mentioned in column (2) of Schedule 1 opposite the mention of a fishery district in column (1) of that Schedule.

5. Subject to Article 6, it is prohibited for a person to take by rod and line on any day in any year—

(a) between 12 May and 31 August, more than 3 fish, and

(b) between 1 September and the day immediately before the next annual close season for salmon and trout, more than 1 fish, in the waters of a river mentioned in column (2) of Schedules 1 and 2 opposite the mention of a fishery district in column (1) of those Schedules.

6. Where a person has taken the number of fish permitted under this bye-law or fails to comply with Article 3 and Article 5 of the Wild Salmon and Sea Trout Tagging Scheme Regulations (S.I. No. 585 of 2018), he or she is prohibited, in the waters of a river mentioned in column (2) of Schedules 1 and 2 opposite the mention of a fishery district in column (1) of those Schedules, to -

(a) take by rod and line any fish other than by catch and release, and

(b) in the course of angling, use or attempt to use worms as bait, or any fish hooks, other than single or double barbless hooks.

7. The Conservation of Salmon and Sea Trout (Bag Limits) Bye-law No. 994, 2021 is revoked.

IRIS
OIFIGIÚIL

All notices and advertisements are published in Iris Oifigiúil for general information purposes only, at the risk of the advertiser and at the discretion of the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland ("the Commissioners"). While the Commissioners utilise their best endeavours to ensure that the publication is made in accordance with the advertiser's requirements, the Commissioners make no representations or warranties about any of the information in any notice or advertisement and accept no responsibility for the accuracy of any information contained in a notice or advertisement. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the Commissioners, their servants and agents shall not be liable for loss or damage arising out of, or in connection with, the use of, or the inability to use, the information contained in any notice or advertisement or arising out of, or in connection with, a failure to meet any requirements of any advertiser or arising out of, or in connection with, any inaccuracy, error or omission contained in any notice or advertisement or in respect of those requirements even if the Commissioners have been advised of the possibility of such loss or damage, or such loss or damage was reasonably foreseeable. The Commissioners reserve the rights not to publish any notice or advertisement and to change the content of any notice, or advertisement at their sole discretion. Use of Iris Oifigiúil is subject to the above and by using Iris Oifigiúil, the user is signifying his or her agreement to the above. If any of the above shall be invalid or unenforceable, that part shall be deemed severable and shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the remaining provisions.
